JOHNNY M. HUNT,

Plaintiff,

v.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION;
GUIDEPOST SOLUTIONS LLC; and EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE
SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION

Defendants.

Case No. 3:23-cv-00243

Judge Campbell
Magistrate Judge Frensley

JURY DEMAND

DECLARATION OF MELISSA J. HOGAN IN SUPPORT OF NON-PARTY JANE DOE’S:

MOTION TO PROCEED PSEUDONYMOUSLY AND TO REDACT REFERENCES TO HER NAME AND IDENTIFYING INFORMATION IN PUBLIC FILINGS

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE UNDER SEAL

MOTION TO EXPEDITE AND FOR EMERGENCY RELIEF

MELISSA J. HOGAN, ESQ., declares under penalty of perjury under 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the following is true and correct:

I, Melissa J. Hogan, am counsel to non-party Jane Doe and submit this Declaration in support of Jane Doe’s motions to proceed pseudonymously and to redact references to her name and identifying information in public filings, Motion for Protective Order (concerning Jane Doe’s Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b) deposition noticed by Defendant Guidepost Solutions LLC’s (“Guidepost”) counsel), Motion for Leave to File Under Seal, and Motion to Expedite and For Emergency Relief.

I state, aver, and declare the following.

1. On November 29, 2023, at 10:27a.m., Jane Doe's lead counsel in this case, Basyle Tchividjian (Florida Bar # 0985007), received from Plaintiff Johnny M. Hunt ("Plaintiff")'s counsel a subpoena duces tecum for our client Jane Doe and a subpoena duces tecum for her spouse (the "Subpoenas Duces Tecum").

2. The Subpoenas Duces Tecum purported to require compliance by December 8, 2023, only nine days after service, in violation of Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 and 45.

3. I was engaged by Jane Doe and her spouse as local counsel on December 3, 2023.

4. On December 5, I conferred with Plaintiff's counsel and agreed to produce the documents by December 15, 2023, sixteen days after service.

5. On December 15, I conferred with Plaintiff's counsel and we agreed that my clients would produce the documents by December 20, 2023, twenty-one days after service.

6. On December 20, 2023, 3:48p.m., we responded to the Subpoenas Duces Tecum, designating responsive documents under the Highly Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only designation based on the Court's Order dated November 22, 2023 (ECF Doc. No. 76) noting that the information regarding Jane Doe "is clearly very personal and relates to an instance of sexual abuse." Id.

7. The Subpoena Duces Tecum request included specifically identified documents that Plaintiff was also requesting from Defendant Guidepost and that had and would continue as the basis for a series of discovery disputes in this case. See Court's Order, November 22, 2023 (ECF Doc. No. 76), Plaintiff's Second Motion to Compel (ECF Doc. No. 106); Plaintiff's Third Motion to Compel (ECF Doc. No. 130).

8. On January 17, 2024, we received from Guidepost's counsel a Notice of Deposition pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) (the “First Notice”) and a Notice of Subpoena and Subpoena to Testify at a Deposition in a Civil Action (the “Deposition Subpoena”). A copy of the Deposition Subpoena (redacted) is attached as Exhibit 1 and a copy of the First Notice (redacted) is attached as Exhibit 2.

9. The First Notice scheduled the deposition for February 8, 2024; however, my client, co-counsel, and I were unavailable on that date and we began to confer with Guidepost’s counsel regarding suitable dates and other protections for our client. Given that our client was a non-party to this case, both the client’s and our calendars were not clear of other matters for some time to prepare for and sit for a deposition. Our client also suffered emotionally from the continued onslaught of this traumatic experience and financially from the necessity of engaging and paying for counsel.

12. Between Fall 2023 and April 2024, a series of contentious discovery disputes ensued in this case, many of which involved topics that would likely be within the scope of Jane Doe’s deposition. As such, Jane Doe’s lead counsel and I considered it in the best interest of our client, a non-party, to wait for these disputes to be addressed by the court. Even so, over that time, we verbally conferred with Defendant Guidepost's counsel and Plaintiff's counsel and exchanged emails regarding a potential deposition and protections for our client.

13. On February 15, 2024, Plaintiff's counsel emailed me a notice and subpoenas for depositions for Jane Doe and her spouse but we were not authorized by our client to receive service and communicated as such to Plaintiff's counsel on multiple occasions.

14. During the course of these discussions, on several occasions, Plaintiff's counsel did not respond to my emails regarding discovery matters and/or did not copy me on e-mails. See, e.g., a copy of Melissa J. Hogan and Basyle Tchividjian' email exchanges with Plaintiff's counsel between February 15 and March 7 (redacted) are attached as Exhibit 4.

15. On March 26, 2024, we conferred with all Defendants' counsel regarding the requested protections for Jane Doe in a deposition. During that conference, we communicated that Jane Doe's lead counsel had a trial in New York state beginning April 15, 2024, that he is preparing for and as a solo practitioner, is focused solely on until the conclusion of that trial.

16. I subsequently learned that on April 15 and 16, 2024, I will be out-of-state at a hospital procedure with a minor child and also unavailable for a deposition of my client Jane Doe.

17. On March 29, 2024, Defendants Southern Baptist Convention and the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention confirmed they had no objections to our requested conditions for Jane Doe's deposition.

18. On April 2, 2024, Defendant Guidepost confirmed they had no objections to our requested conditions for Jane Doe's deposition.

19. On April 2, 2024, Defendant Guidepost sent a notice of deposition for Jane Doe for April 16, 2024 (the "Second Notice") with the purpose of noticing the deposition within the court's current fact discovery window prior to our expected motion for protective order on behalf of Jane

Doe. A copy of the Second Notice (redacted) is attached as Exhibit 5.

20. On April 2, 2024, we conferred with Plaintiff's counsel regarding the requested protections for Jane Doe in a deposition. Plaintiff's counsel Robert MacGill said that Jane Doe's testimony would be "very public, very public," generating concern about maintaining the privacy of Jane Doe's identity and deposition.

21. On April 4, 2024, we clarified to Defendants and Plaintiff that we would also be seeking leave of the court to proceed pseudonymously for Jane Doe, to seal her deposition subpoena and notices, and to require redaction of her name and identifying information from any public filings.

22. On April 5, 2024, all Defendants communicated that they did not object to Jane Doe proceeding pseudonymously, sealing the subpoena and notices, and to the redaction of her name and identifying information from any public filings.

23. On April 5, 2024, Plaintiff's counsel communicated that they objected to most of the requested conditions discussed for Jane Doe's deposition.

24. On April 5, 2024, April 8, 2024, and April 9, 2024, I asked Plaintiff's counsel whether they would oppose our Motion to Proceed Pseudonymously and he refused to state a position. A copy of the email exchange (redacted) is attached as Exhibit 6.

[REDACTED]

I declare under the penalty of perjury under the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on the 9th day of April 2024, at Nashville, Tennessee.

Respectfully submitted,
